THE SAD TRAIN

Departs from Albany Amid the Tolling of Bells and Booming of Cannon.

Seventy-One Thousand Albanians Look Into the Silent Face of the Dead.

Hundreds of People Gaze at the Moving Train and do its Load Honor.

VIEWING THE REMAINS

At the Rate of One Hundred per Minute.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 5.—The files of people which began passing the remains of General Grant in the senate corridor at the capitol when the doors were first thrown open yesterday afternoon, had not diminished at midnight. The procession kept up all night and at 6 o'clock 51,200 persons had viewed the remains and the two streams of visitors were still surging past the casket. At 10 o'clock it was estimated that the remains were viewed by one hundred persons per minute and that up to that hour 60,000 persons had seen the face of the dead general. The prominent citizens of New York city, appointed by Mayor Grace to represent that city at Albany and to accompany the remains from this city to New York, have arrived.

THE UNDERTAKERS ANXIOUS.

The undertakers and embalmers, who have immediate charge of the body, are not a little anxious. Every effort and means known to their craft is being employed to preserve the remains in such a condition as will make it both possible and proper to display them in New York. The remains will doubtless be displayed to-night in City hall, New York, but obviously this is contingent upon the care exercised in transporting the remains over the pavements in New York.

At 10:30 this morning the capitol doors were swung shut and none but the guard of honor were allowed to remain. The undertakers now took charge and so far as possible prepared the remains for the last stage of the journey.

WANT MORE RELICS.

Speculators have made efforts to secure the possession of the catafalque and funeral car after the remains depart. An offer of $5,000 has been made for the catafalque. As they are the property of the national government, however, it is not likely that relic hunters will obtain them. The steel casket, built at Troy, was completed last evening.

THE FUNERAL CAR TO NEW YORK.

She funeral car, drawn by six black horses with their mourning trappings, moved to the State street side of the capitol. General Hancock and staff, General Farnsworth and staff, and Governor Hill and staff were in waiting. The guard of honor from the U. S. Grant post moved out to the slow strains of music and the sound of the trumpets of the regulars upon the upper steps of the capitol. Thirteen men were touching the casket and so surrounding and almost hiding it from view. Four men were inside the car and assisting in to the black dais within the mounted catafalque. Then Colonel Beck and Major Brown ranged their companies of regulars on either side of the car, the Grand Army guard took positions. The trumpets were sounded and the procession started down State street, the various organizations falling in to form the procession amid the

and tolling and chiming of bells in the steeples. The line of march was everywhere densely thronged. The friends of General Grant and their companions yesterday were driven to the depot, where the long, black funeral train was awaiting its burden. Guns boomed while the remains were being placed in the car (Woodlawn) and the bells tolled slowly. The remains were viewed in Albany by 77,200 persons.

A SORROWFUL SCENE.

At the instant the train started a dirge came up to the ears of all in the train from the band of the Jackson corps, that stood in the line and saluted. Hundreds of persons standing near the track laid coins on the rails to have them flattened beneath the wheels of the train. On the roofs of houses in the vicinity hundreds witnessed the start and the long bridge of the Hudson had two dense lines of people, who filled the foot paths on either side. Across the river were crowds of people standing with uncovered heads to be a part of a scene never to be enacted again.

EN ROUTE TO NEW YORK.

At the Hudson and Catskill mourning drapery was shown on buildings and guns fired salutes as the train passed. There were many people along the track on either side. Out on the river there were many small boats, and launches and small yachts with ensigns tipped with black. Each bore people with heads uncovered and all these tokens of respect were not unheeded by the sons of the dead. Poughkepsie was reached on time, 2:55 p. m.

AT ALBANY.

ALBANY, August 4.—Colonel Grant, Jesse Grant, and U. S. Grant, Jr., alighted first from the funeral train when it had stopped at the foot of Spencer street, in Albany. Gov. Hill took the first upon his arm, Assistant Adjutant General McEwin the second, and Col. Gelette the third. Rev. Dr. Newman, Dr. Douglass, and General Sherman followed with General Porter, and the party was at once escorted to carriages and driven to the Governor's mansion.

Before the remains were removed Governor Hill and other officers returned to the train and there greeted Gen. Hancock and staff, who were at that moment alighting from the car they had occupied. The remains were placed within the mounted catafalque. Six black horses with black trapping were hitched to the funeral car, and at the head of each horse as leaders were members of G. A. R. posts, Nos. 5 and 121. The crowd was dense. The remains, having been deposited on the funeral car, were drawn out into Spencer street, where they were flanked. Company H, of the Fifth Artillery, and Company E, of the Twelfth Infantry, and Grand Army men guarded the remains at the posts of honor, and the four men of the Tenth Battalion were mounted at each corner of the catafalque. Gen. Hancock and staff filed out into Spencer street, where the General was mounted on a powerful black horse, splendidly caparisoned. The organizations to take part in the procession were waiting in various streets along the line of march and assumed their assigned positions in the procession as the head moved on.

AT NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—The catafalque and canopy used at Mt. McGregor reached the city hall this morning and was early placed in position in the corridor.

A SCORCHER

From the Pen of President Cleveland.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—One of the recent incidents in the president's experience with political applicants seems thus far to have escaped observation and the report is that the president received a letter dated Cincinnati, July 24, 1885, in which the writer says: "This comcommunity read the announcement of 'To the judgeship' with astonishment and regret, if not pain, and none were more astonished than those who had signed his petition and I regret to say that my name is to be found upon it. I have refused several, whom I know to be unfit, but I signed this one thinking it would never be considered and not for one moment believing the appointment was possible. It was signed by many prominent men who hated to refuse and hoped and thought it would result in nothing."

To this the president replied:

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1, 1885.

DEAR SIR—I have read your letter with amazement and indignation. There is but one mitigation to the perfidy which your letter discloses and that is found in the fact that you confess your share in it. I do not know whether you are a democrat or not, but if you are, the crime which you confess is more unpardonable. The idea that this administration, pledged to give the people better government and better officers and engaged in a hand to hand fight with the bad element of both parties, should be betrayed by those who ought to be worthy of implicit trust is atrocious, and such treason to the people and to the party ought to be punished by imprisonment. Your confession comes too late to be of immediate use to the public service, and I can only say that while this is not the first time I have been deceived and misled by lying and treacherous representations, you are the first one that has so frankly owned his grievous fault. If any comfort is to be extracted from this assurance you are welcome to it. Yours truly,

GROVER CLEVELAND.

WASHINGTON, August 4.—President Cleveland to-day informed the delegation representing the cattlemen, that he would not modify the recent order for the removal of cattle from the leased lands on the Cheyenne and Arapahoe Indians' lands within forty days. In declining to agree to any postponement, President Cleveland said: "There is one point that seems to escape your attention, gentlemen. That point is before my eye, and it is the public interest. We have lately seen what fear can be created by thirty or forty Indians within two hours. A letter has come to my desk from the Governor of Kansas urging that troops on the border of that State should not be withdrawn. The highest officer in the army, one experienced in Indian affairs, reports the situation in the Territory, and says that the cause of the irritation is the presence of cattlemen. A section of the country containing 4,250,000 acres was set apart for Indians only. One-tenth of 400,000 acres is left. They are crowded to the agencies. Some may have been secured with the consent of the Indians. It is as plain to me as it is to you that this state of affairs cannot continue. Two interests are in conflict. Which shall give way? On the one side we have public peace, public security, and the safety of lives. On the other side are your interests. The former, gentlemen must be considered, though private interests suffer. The question of putting off this removal until next spring is inadmissable. The order cannot be modified. I want to see some diligence in complying with the order. Twelve days have passed. Precious time is lost. A dispatch was sent saying in the most positive terms that the order could not be modified. Here you are after twelve days having passed. If any indulgence is shown, it must be an application in specific cases, with evidence that an effort has been made to comply with the order. If your interests led you out of the Territory instead of in, I cannot help but think that you would find some way out in the specified time. I wish you would co-operate and take hold and try to get the cattle off. No arguments will induce me to change what has been done. Some loss and inconvenience will no doubt follow, but there is an interest greater than yours which must receive attention."

The delegation, upon the conclusion of the President's reply, left the executive mansion.

FORT MADISON, Iowa, Aug. 5.—Supreme Chancellor VanValkenburg has issued a general dispensation to the Knights of Pythias of the country authorizing members of subordinate lodges and divisions of the uniform rank, Knights of Pythias, to appear in full uniform and remain at the memorial services of Gen. LONDON, Aug. 5.—The Russians are planning a new town at Merv, including a citadel, barracks, gardens and bazaars. Owing to rumors that the Afghans are massing near Penjdeh, strong Russian reinforcements have been dispatched to that place.

The discontented section of the tories led by the whig section of the late cabinet are making overtures for a coalition. Sir William Harcourt, Mr. Forster and and the Duke of Argyle are exchanging views with the Duke of Richmond, Sir Richard Across and other anti-Churchill members. By the coalition it is intended to obtain in the new parliament a majority sufficient to control the radicals and Parnellites.

DASTARDLY OUTRAGES.

There has recently been a startling increase in outrages on girls of tender years. In a single day six miscreants were convicted at Liverpool and other cases are reported elsewhere. The increase is attributed to the influence of the Pall Mall Gazette's recent exposures. The Gazette contends there has been no increase, but the cases of outrage are simply brought into greater prominence.

LONDON, August 4.—The House of Commons last night agreed to a new clause in the criminal bill, granting the right of search to a relation, guardian, or any other person who is in good faith interested in a girl's welfare. A clause making a medical man who examined a girl for any immoral purpose liable to two years' imprisonment, was voted negatively by a vote of 50 to 15. The bill was passed in the committee.

In the Commons to-day, Lord Salisbury, in the course of his speech, said: "Russia does not appear to share our views concerning the Zulficar pass. In the meantime Marchuak remains in the possession of the Afghans and Pendjeh continues in the possession of Russia, and we are pursuing as rapidly and vigorously as possible a policy to strengthen the Indian frontier. No alteration in the diplomatic situation can induce the government in the slightest degree to relax or altar the policy, which will not depend upon transitory relations with this or that other country. The government have no present intention to occupy strategetic positions in the Ameer's domains."

Appointments.

WASHINGTON, August 4.—The President to-day commissioned the following postmasters: Gardner A. Wilder, Circleville, Georgia; William N. Van Antwerp, Jackson, Michigan; Henry Cook, Michigan City, Indiana.

The president to-day appointed Wm. C. Jones, of Kansas, marshal of the district of Kansas.

Loud calls were maid for Countee, but he failed to appear. The negro pastor fired his pistol at the mob and managed to escape. Countee had been a member of one of the secret societies but resigned and began denouncing them. Members of this society take an oath not to divulge the secrets on penalty of having their scalps removed and brains exposed to the eye and the scorching sun. Countee is said to have made himself liable to this rule.

PEORIA, Ill., Aug. 5.—President Miller, of the whisky pool, has been here for two day's past trying to arrange the distillers matters, one or more representatives of Cincinnati and other distilleries have also been here. The cause of the congregation was that the Great Western, one of the heaviest distilleries in the association, had announced its intention to start up. The reason given by the Great Western men was that it furnished a class of goods not furnished by other distilleries. The matter has not been arranged and the Great Western will run.

Father, Mother, and Three Sisters Dead.

Mr. David Claypool, formerly Sergeant-at-Arms of the New Jersey Senate, and now Notary Public at Cedarville, Cumberland Co., N. J., makes the following startling statement: "My father, mother, and three sisters all died with consumption, and my lungs were so weak I raised blood. Nobody thought I could live. My work (ship-smithing) was very straining on me with my weak constitution, and I was rapidly going to the grave. While in this condition I commenced using Mishler's Herb Bitters, and it saved my life. Because it was so difficult to get it in this little place, and I had improved so much, I stopped taking it for a time, and the result is that I have commenced going rapidly down hill again. Somehow, Mishler's Herb Bitters gives appetite and strengthens and builds me up as nothing else does, and I must have a dozen bottles at once. Use this communication as you please, and if any one wants to be convinced of its truth, let them write me and I will make affidavit to it, for I owe my life to Mishler's Herb Bitters."

The secret of the almost invariable relief and cure of consumption, dysentery, diarrhœa, dyspepsia, indigestion, kidney and liver complaints, when Mishler's Herb Bitters is used, is that it contains simple, harmless, and yet powerful ingredients, that act on the blood, kidneys, and liver, and through them strengthens and invigorates the whole system. Purely vegetable in its composition; prepared by a regular physician; a standard medicinal preparation; endorsed by physicians and druggists. These are four strong points in favor of Mishler's Herb Bitters. Mishler's Herb Bitters is sold by all druggists. Price $1.00 per large bottle. 6 bottles for $5.00.

Ask your druggist for MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS. If he does not keep it, do not take anything else, but send a postal card to MISHLER HERB BITTERS CO., 525 Commerce Street, Philadelphia.

GENERAL GRANT'S name was not "Ulysses S. Grant." It was Hiram U. Grant. The president's name is not "Grover Cleveland." It is Stephen G. Cleveland. The great speculator's name is not "Jay Gould." It is John J. Gould.

MRS. ROSCOE CONKLING gave a dinner party at her residence, in Utica, last Monday, at which were present her brother, the Hon. Horatio Seymour, and Mr. Fred Conkling, Mrs. Conkling's brother-in-law. Ex-Governor Seymour was in full evening dress and looked well, in spite of his seventy-five years.

WHILE New York is merely talking about a monument to the memory of Grant, Chicago has already raised nearly $40,000 towards the erection of one, and will speedily raise $100,000, if it is decided to expend that amount. When New York proposes to erect a monument to Grant, it appeals to the country. When Chicago proposes to erect such a monument, it appeals to its citizens.—Chicago Times.

MRS. W. W. BANON, of Watertown, Mass., is over sixty years old, and has been an invalid for twenty years and confined to her bed. Last Saturday week she took a dose of morphine and some whisky, and a few hours later left her bed able to walk. Here is another problem for the Boston people to solve. The old lady did not believe in either the mind cure or the faith cure, and it could not have been the morphine. Was it the whisky?

A WORCESTER (Mass.) doctor was sent for in haste to attend a boy living some distance from town, and found the lad dangerously sick with a diphtheritic throat. He left a prescription upon the table near the patient, and promised to call again. A few days afterward he found the patient much improved, and the mother assured the good doctor that "the prescription did him a world of good." She "left it by him where he could hold it in his hand any time, and he could now read the most of it." The boy is now in his usual health.

MARRIAGE is said to be a less popular thing than it once was, and something should be done for the sake of the country to persuade young men that the wedded state is the only one where there is real comfort. It is with this laudable object in view that we call attention to a recent scene on the railroad which lies between Rome and Watertown, N. Y. On a train between the two places were a mother and her children. The husband and father was not on the train, and the brief account given in the local newspaper does not say that any of the single men envied him, but that they did so may be assumed. There were eight of the children—four pairs of twins. The eight children, four pairs of twins, were in the smoking-car. They were put there because they had the measles, every one of them, and it wasn't safe to have them mix with the other passengers. As already remarked, the husband was not along. He may have had the measles, too—or have drowned himself. Yet young men, somehow, will not marry with the chance to each—there is always a chance—of becoming the father of four pairs of twins, all with the measles. Patriotism is dwindling away dreadfully in this country.

T. C. CRAWFORD tells a queer little story as illustrating Ferdinand Ward's rapacity. Gen. Grant, he says, was accustomed to go up to New York to attend a board meeting from Long Branch, and when he did he received the usual director's fee of a ten-dollar gold piece. This he always gave to Mrs. Grant until she had some seventy or eighty of them. Ward heard of this and got hold of them. He had so coaxed the remote saving of every individual member of the family that when the failure came there was not a single member of the family who had $100 at his command.

This is the season for chills and fevers, and there is no better preventive or cure than Mishler's Herb Bitters. Wm. Cork, of Lancaster, Pa., can bear testimony to this. He was subject to periodical attacks and nothing seemed to do him any good. "At the recommendation of some of my friends," he writes, "I commenced using Mishler's Herb Bitters, and, contrary to my previous experience, I found that it had at least some palpable effect. It thoroughly cleaned my system and I am now completely cured."

What It Does.

Almost every lady habitually uses some kind of hair dressing. It is a toilet necessity. Parker's Hair Balsam is the best, because it gives gloss and softness; arrests falling out; does not soil the most delicate fabric; is deliciously perfumed; cools the head; eradicates dandruff, and promotes a luxurient growth.

RESOLUTION AND DESCRIPTION OF LOTS AND LANDS RELATING TO THE CITY LIMITS.

Be it Resolved, That the Common Council of the city of Fort Wayne do petition the board of commissioners of Allen county, Indiana, at their first regular meeting after due notice by publication, for the annexation to the said city of the lands and territory not laid off in lots embraced in the list hereto attached, and that the city civil engineer be and he is hereby directed to file therewith his verified maps and survey of said lands and territory and that due notice of the pendency of said petition be given to the owners of said lands and territory by publication in THE FORT WAYNE DAILY SENTINEL, said petition to be as follows.

To the Honorable Board of Commissioners of Allen County, State of Indiana.

Your petitioners, the mayor and common council of the city of Fort Wayne, do respectfully petition your honorable body to annex to the said city of Fort Wayne the lands and territory set out and fully described by metes and bounds, with names of owners, in the list filed herewith and marked Exhibit "A." All of said lands and territory are contiguous to said city and not laid off in lots, and the owners will not consent to the annexation thereof. The reasons for the annexation thereof are because the growth of said city and her business interests require it. The vicinity adjacent to said lands and territory is thickly populated and greatly in need, as well as said territory itself, of streets, alleys and sidewalks, which ought to be opened and constructed through and upon said lands and territory. That public health and convenience require that said lands and territory should be under the jurisdiction of said city in order that the same may be drained by sewers and ditches and lighted with gas, and it is necessary the city should have jurisdiction over the same for the purpose of enforcing ordinances and police regulations for the protection of property and persons and for the peace and welfare of the citizens of said city. That petitioners have filed herewith and made a part hereof the plat and maps of said lands and territory, duly verified and marked Exhibit "B."

HERMAN MICHAEL.

Try Jones if you want fine Photos.

The rivers hereabouts are running high.

Rev. W. F. Horstmeier, of Terre Haute, is in the city, the guest of his friends.

The rival bill posters, Richards and Flinn, had a quarrel yesterday. Colonel Scott smiles at this.

Mr. Henry Colerick and Hon. John S. Larwill, with their families, left this morning for Rome City to stay some time.

Summer colds are always worse than those of winter, but Red Star Cough Cure will remove them. It is prompt, safe, sure.

Mr. D. Nestel drives a fourteen-month old colt to a top carriage. The animal acts like an old one to harness and is perfectly gentle.

Mr. Cook, the new democratic mail carrier does service like a veteran. His appointment was an admirable one and he furnished a good bond.

The aged father of Henry Lange, of Adams township, who broke his right leg a few weeks ago, cannot have the limb healed. His vital power is exhausted.

Postmaster Kaough will make no changes in the post office at present. He desires to first acquaint himself with the business and under no consideration will he impair the service.

The indications for the lower lake region, as reported by the weather bureau at Washington to THE SENTINEL are as follows: Fair weather, nearly stationary temperature, northerly winds, becoming variable.

The News is shocked because Clara Varnum was fined $10 and her male companion $5, by Justice Ryan yesterday, The man said guilty quietly, while the woman perjured herself in the most brazen and willful manner by declaring she married the man a week ago at Toledo. Her companion says he never met her before the picnic near White's spoke factory.

A Rare Chance.

As D. Nestle intends to accompany his son and daughter, the "Comodore" and "Fairy," to Europe, providing he can get away from business, he therefore offers a big bargain in selling out his stock of dry goods, fancy goods, notions, etc., at No. 130 Broadway, including a bill of fall goods ordered and coming, or will exchange for real estate and give a lease of the store, which is a first class one in every respect, at reasonable terms. In order to accomodate his esteemed customers the stock will be kept up of assortments at greatly reduced prices on all goods until sold or exchanged.

A THING OF BEAUTY.

How a Pretty Photograph will Catch the Eye of the Sweetest Maiden in the Land.

A pretty girl knows her charms and is the first to detect a thing of beauty. She may toss her head at the glance of a handsome man and glare at a rival beauty, but never in the world's history did she pass a pretty photograph, even of "Mother, so dear." There is a study in a fine likeness, because in it the artist shows his master hand. In the position, the shade of the face or a sly glance there is something cute, and of each catchy point the pretty girl makes a "note." Opposite THE SENTINEL office is Hover's celebrated photographic gallery, and hundreds of pedestrians tarry there daily to inspect the slendid work of Murdock, the finest artist in the west. This gentleman has the faculty of producing the most elegant pictures and they are things of beauty, because a pretty girl never passes but to pause and admire the display, notwithstanding the counter attraction across the way. Mr. Murdock's ear must constantly ring so general are his praises sounded, and Hover's gallery is on every lip. Mr. Hover believes in standing in the front rank and people appreciate this sort of enterprise because it gives them work not surpassed in any city in the land. Mr. Hover's parlors are at 112 Calhoun street, opposite THE SENTINEL office.

Very Poor Economy.

Some people make a business of cheating themselves, either by eating very mean and cheap food, or else by eating too small a quantity of good food. Either way is a bad policy as it would be to buy a coffin instead of a suit of good clothes, just because the coffin would cost less. Poor diet means impoverished blood; and that means misery. Brown's Iron Bitters enriches the blood gives it the iron it needs, and tones up the whole system. Cures dyspepsia, indigestion, weakness, malaria, etc.

May making and wheat harvesting are over and we hear some complaints that if the farmers don't soon cut their oats the grasshoppers will cut it for them.

On the last evening in July, at the residence of Joseph Douglas, a birthday party was given in honor of his son, John. Bright lights shone from the house and piazza. The company gathered numbered thirty-five. After a few hours of pleasure on the lawn, they were called for refreshments, an ample supply of which was served. One thing worthy of notice was the elegant birthday cake, with wreath and flowers, presented by Miss May V. Mower. A slice of the cake was given to each one present by the young host. All were glad to share the cake with him, and many fine compliment were passed about the cake, and the host said he must eat a dish of cream with the donor. At a late hour, after wishing their friend many happy birthdays, a parting adieu was said and the company returned to their homes.

CANCER OF TONGUE!

A Case Resembling that of Gen. Grant.

Some ten years ago I had a scrofulous sore on my right hand which gave me great trouble, and under the old time treatment was healed up, and I supposed I was well. I found, however, it had only been driven into the system by the use of potash and mercury and in March, 1882, it broke out in my throat, and concentrated in what some of the doctors denominated cancer. I was placed under treatment for this disease. Some six or seven of the best physicians of the country had me at different times under their charge, among them three specialists in this line; but one after another would exhaust their skill and drop me, for I grew worse continually. The cancer had eaten through my cheek, destroying the roof of my mouth and upper lip, then attacked my tongue, palate and lower lip, destroying the palate and under lip entirely and half my tongue, eating out to the top of my left cheek bone and up to the left eye. From a hearty, robust woman of 150 pounds, I was reduced to a mere frame of skin and bones, almost unable to turn myself in bed. I could not eat any solid food, but subsisted on liquids and my tongue was so far gone I could not talk. The anguish of mind and the horrible sufferings of body which I experienced never can be revealed, Given up by physicians to die, with no hope of recovery upon the part of friends who sat around my bedside expecting every moment to be my last; in fact, my husband would place his hand on me every now and then to see whether I was alive or not, and at one time all decided that life was extinct, and my death was reported all over the country.

Such was my wretched and helpless condition the first of last October (1884), when my friends commenced giving me Swift's Specfic. In less than a month, the eating places stopped and healing commenced, and the fearful aperture in my cheek has been closed and firmly knitted together. A progress of a new under lip is progressing finely, and the tongue which was almost destroyed is being recovered, and it seems that nature is supplying a new tongue. I can talk so that my friends can readily understand me, and can eat solid food again. I am able to walk about wherever I please without the assistance of anyone and have gained fifty pounds of flesh. All this under the blessing of a mercifully Heavenly Father, is due to Swift's Specific. I am a wonder and a marvel to all my friends, hundreds of whom have known my intense sufferings, and have visited me in my afflictions. While I am not entirely well, yet my gratitude is none the less devout, and I am confident that a perfect recovery is now in sight. If any doubt these facts, I would refer them to Hon. John H. Traylor, state senator of this district, who is my neighbor, Dr. T. S. Bradfield, of LaGrange, Ga., or to any other persons living in the southern part of Troupe county, Ga.

HAGAN'S

is a secret aid to beauty. Many a lady owes her freshness to it, who would rather not tell, and you can't tell.

Fort Wayne Paint and Color Works,

No. 12 West Columbia Street Fort Wayne, Indiana.

To Painters

And others wanting First-class Paints: Do you know that you have in Fort Wayne a Manufacturer of Mixed Paint and Grinder of Colors, where you can buy your Paints from first hand instead of paying the middle man his profits, which are from 25 to 33⅓ per cent. O.L. STARKEY, the Painter and proprietor of the Fort Wayne Paint and Color Works, came to Fort Wayne in April, 1856, and is identified as one of the old citizens who has helped build up Fort Wayne, and his knowledge of Paints and the composition of pigments to form different shades and tints is well-known to the public, and his long practical experience in painting gives him the knowledge of Paints that a mere dealer cannot have for he does not know anything about Paints, as he buys them sealed up and he cannot tell you what it takes to make this or that shade. All he knows is what the label on the can says. Neither can he tell you shades that will or will not fade. By buying your Paints of O. L. STARKEY you can get all the information you want. I am making Liquid Paints in all shades and colors; also the same shades and colors in paste form, the same thickness as white lead and requires thinning down the same as white lead. In making the different shades my formulas are all registered giving the amount of each color it takes to form certain shades all thoroughly mixed together in the powder mills, then wet down and run through a mixing machine, and from there to the mills where it is all ground together making a pigment that cannot be made by hand. Call or send and get some of my sample cards of colors and tints; also see elevations of gothic houses colored up with four and five shades, which will give you a good idea how to paint and ornament the outside of your houses.

I say again, do not buy of the middle man if you want to save money. I will guarantee my prices and quality of goods with any manufacturer in the United States.

AGAINST DRINK.

The Allen County Temperance Unions Declare Against Wine at the Altar and Liquor in General.

A convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Unions of Allen county was held at Maysville, July 24, 1885. The unions, which are four in number, were all represented.

MORNING SESSION.

The exercises were opened by devotional exercises, after which an address of welcome was given by Mrs. Stopher, president of the Maysville union. This was followed by a response. The audience was entertained by an interesting essay by Mrs. Dr. S. H. Omo, after which the business of the day was taken up. The first business was organizing. Mrs. Dr. Omo having been previously chosen president of the county, Mrs. Myers, of Leo, was chosen secretary and Miss Schrader, of Fort Wayne, treasurer. Committees were then appointed on press work, resolutions and for other purposes. The convention was then adlourned to meet at 2 p. m.

AFTERNOON.

At 2 p. m. the convention was opened by devotional exercises, after which reports were made by committees, followed by reports from secretaries of the different unions. The remainder of the time was occupied by short speeches from Revs. Slack and Singer, Dr. J. H. Omo and others. The meeting then adjourned until 7:30 p. m.

EVENING.

The evening exercises consisted of songs, essays, recitations, singing by members of the Band of Hope and a talk by Mrs. Philley, of Fort Wayne.

The entire exercises were full of interest and an eartest of purpose on the part of the participants, which are very favorable to success. The next meeting will be held at Leo, time yet to be decided. The following resolutions were passed:

Resolved, That believing the use of fermented wine at the sacrament of the Lord's Supper has been the means of leading many reformed men back to their old habits of using intoxicants, and that the example before the world is not a consistent one, we earnestly protest and will invite our pastors to lend their influence against its use.

Resolved, That knowing intemperance to be a sin, we as christian mothers, wives and sisters cannot look upon the licensing of this evil with the least degree of approval.

Resolved, That as our hope for the future lies in the children of to-day, we will engage in and encourage the juvenile temperance work, and that we will heartily cooperate in securing scientific instruction in our schools.

Resolved, That realizing that more effective work can be done if the workers are well informed, and that the life of our union depend upon it, and our national and state organs need our support we will as far as possible take the Union Signal and Organizer in our homes, read selections from them in our meetings and circulate them among the people.

Resolved, That in the future as in the past, we will look to God for help and guidance, and that we will more and more look to him for weapons with which to fight the liquor traffic, which is one of the greatest enemies of our homes.

Departs from Albany Amid the Tolling of Bells and Booming of Cannon.

Seventy-One Thousand Albanians Look Into the Silent Face of the Dead.

Hundreds of People Gaze at the Moving Train and do its Load Honor.

VIEWING THE REMAINS

At the Rate of One Hundred per Minute.

By Telegraph to The Sentinel.

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 5.—The files of people which began passing the remains of General Grant in the senate corridor at the capitol when the doors were first thrown open yesterday afternoon, had not diminished at midnight. The procession kept up all night and at 6 o'clock 51,200 persons had viewed the remains and the two streams of visitors were still surging past the casket. At 10 o'clock it was estimated that the remains were viewed by one hundred persons per minute and that up to that hour 60,000 persons had seen the face of the dead general. The prominent citizens of New York city, appointed by Mayor Grace to represent that city at Albany and to accompany the remains from this city to New York, have arrived.

THE UNDERTAKERS ANXIOUS.

The undertakers and embalmers, who have immediate charge of the body, are not a little anxious. Every effort and means known to their craft is being employed to preserve the remains in such a condition as will make it both possible and proper to display them in New York. The remains will doubtless be displayed to-night in City hall, New York, but obviously this is contingent upon the care exercised in transporting the remains over the pavements in New York.

At 10:30 this morning the capitol doors were swung shut and none but the guard of honor were allowed to remain. The undertakers now took charge and so far as possible prepared the remains for the last stage of the journey.

WANT MORE RELICS.

Speculators have made efforts to secure the possession of the catafalque and funeral car after the remains depart. An offer of $5,000 has been made for the catafalque. As they are the property of the national government, however, it is not likely that relic hunters will obtain them. The steel casket, built at Troy, was completed last evening.

THE FUNERAL CAR TO NEW YORK.

She funeral car, drawn by six black horses with their mourning trappings, moved to the State street side of the capitol. General Hancock and staff, General Farnsworth and staff, and Governor Hill and staff were in waiting. The guard of honor from the U. S. Grant post moved out to the slow strains of music and the sound of the trumpets of the regulars upon the upper steps of the capitol. Thirteen men were touching the casket and so surrounding and almost hiding it from view. Four men were inside the car and assisting in to the black dais within the mounted catafalque. Then Colonel Beck and Major Brown ranged their companies of regulars on either side of the car, the Grand Army guard took positions. The trumpets were sounded and the procession started down State street, the various organizations falling in to form the procession amid the

and tolling and chiming of bells in the steeples. The line of march was everywhere densely thronged. The friends of General Grant and their companions yesterday were driven to the depot, where the long, black funeral train was awaiting its burden. Guns boomed while the remains were being placed in the car (Woodlawn) and the bells tolled slowly. The remains were viewed in Albany by 77,200 persons.

A SORROWFUL SCENE.

At the instant the train started a dirge came up to the ears of all in the train from the band of the Jackson corps, that stood in the line and saluted. Hundreds of persons standing near the track laid coins on the rails to have them flattened beneath the wheels of the train. On the roofs of houses in the vicinity hundreds witnessed the start and the long bridge of the Hudson had two dense lines of people, who filled the foot paths on either side. Across the river were crowds of people standing with uncovered heads to be a part of a scene never to be enacted again.

EN ROUTE TO NEW YORK.

At the Hudson and Catskill mourning drapery was shown on buildings and guns fired salutes as the train passed. There were many people along the track on either side. Out on the river there were many small boats, and launches and small yachts with ensigns tipped with black. Each bore people with heads uncovered and all these tokens of respect were not unheeded by the sons of the dead. Poughkepsie was reached on time, 2:55 p. m.

AT ALBANY.

ALBANY, August 4.—Colonel Grant, Jesse Grant, and U. S. Grant, Jr., alighted first from the funeral train when it had stopped at the foot of Spencer street, in Albany. Gov. Hill took the first upon his arm, Assistant Adjutant General McEwan the second, and Col. Gelette the third. Rev. Dr. Newman, Dr. Douglass, and General Sherman followed with General Porter, and the party was at once escorted to carriages and driven to the Governor's mansion.

Before the remains were removed Governor Hill and other officers returned to the train and there greeted Gen. Hancock and staff, who were at that moment alighting from the car they had occupied. The remains were placed within the mounted catafalque. Six black horses with black trapping were hitched to the funeral car, and at the head of each horse as leaders were members of G. A. R. posts, Nos. 5 and 121. The crowd was dense. The remains, having been deposited on the funeral car, were drawn out into Spencer street, where they were flanked. Company H, of the Fifth Artillery, and Company E, of the Twelfth Infantry, and Grand Army men guarded the remains at the posts of honor, and the four men of the Tenth Battalion were mounted at each corner of the catafalque. Gen. Hancock and staff filed out into Spencer street, where the General was mounted on a powerful black horse, splendidly caparisoned. The organizations to take part in the procession were waiting in various streets along the line of march and assumed their assigned positions in the procession as the head moved on.

AT NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—The catafalque and canopy used at Mt. McGregor reached the city hall this morning and was early placed in position in the corridor.

A SCORCHER

From the Pen of President Cleveland.

By Telegraph to The Sentinel.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—One of the recent incidents in the president's experience with political applicants seems thus far to have escaped observation and the report is that the president received a letter dated Cincinnati, July 24, 1885, in which the writer says: "This comcommunity read the announcement of 'To the judgeship' with astonishment and regret, if not pain, and none were more astonished than those who had signed his petition and I regret to say that my name is to be found upon it. I have refused several, whom I know to be unfit, but I signed this one thinking it would never be considered and not for one moment believing the appointment was possible. It was signed by many prominent men who hated to refuse and hoped and thought it would result in nothing."

To this the president replied:

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1, 1885.

DEAR SIR: I have read your letter with amazement and indignation. There is but one mitigation to the perfidy which your letter discloses and that is found in the fact that you confess your share in it. I do not know whether you are a democrat or not, but if you are, the crime which you confess is more unpardonable. The idea that this administration, pledged to give the people better government and better officers and engaged in a hand to hand fight with the bad element of both parties, should be betrayed by those who ought to be worthy of implicit trust is atrocious, and such treason to the people and to the party ought to be punished by imprisonment. Your confession comes too late to be of immediate use to the public service, and I can only say that while this is not the first time I have been deceived and misled by lying and treacherous representations, you are the first one that has so frankly owned his grievous fault. If any comfort is to be extracted from this assurance you are welcome to it. Yours truly,

GROVER CLEVELAND.

WASHINGTON, August 4.—President Cleveland to-day informed the delegation representing the cattlemen, that he would not modify the recent order for the removal of cattle from the leased lands on the Cheyenne and Arapahoe Indians' lands within forty days. In declining to agree to any postponement, President Cleveland said: "There is one point that seems to escape your attention, gentlemen. That point is before my eye, and it is the public interest. We have lately seen what fear can be created by thirty or forty Indians within two hours. A letter has come to my desk from the Governor of Kansas urging that troops on the border of that State should not be withdrawn. The highest officer in the army, one experienced in Indian affairs, reports the situation in the Territory, and says that the cause of the irritation is the presence of cattlemen. A section of the country containing 4,250,000 acres was set apart for Indians only. One-tenth of 400,000 acres is left. They are crowded to the agencies. Some may have been secured with the consent of the Indians. It is as plain to me as it is to you that this state of affairs cannot continue. Two interests are in conflict. Which shall give way? On the one side we have public peace, public security, and the safety of lives. On the other side are your interests. The former, gentlemen must be considered, though private interests suffer. The question of putting off this removal until next spring is inadmissable. The order cannot be modified. I want to see some diligence in complying with the order. Twelve days have passed. Precious time is lost. A dispatch was sent saying in the most positive terms that the order could not be modified. Here you are after twelve days having passed. If any indulgence is shown, it must be an application in specific cases, with evidence that an effort has been made to comply with the order. If your interests led you out of the Territory instead of in, I cannot help but think that you would find some way out in the specified time. I wish you would co-operate and take hold and try to get the cattle off. No arguments will induce me to change what has been done. Some loss and inconvenience will no doubt follow, but there is an interest greater than yours which must receive attention."

The delegation, upon the conclusion of the President's reply, left the executive mansion.

LONDON, Aug. 5.—The Russians are planning a new town at Merv, including a citadel, barracks, gardens and bazaars. Owing to rumors that the Afghans are massing near Penjdeh, strong Russian reinforcements have been dispatched to that place.

The discontented section of the tories led by the whig section of the late cabinet are making overtures for a coalition. Sir William Harcourt, Mr. Forster and and the Duke of Argyle are exchanging views with the Duke of Richmond, Sir Richard Across and other anti-Churchill members. By the coalition it is intended to obtain in the new parliament a majority sufficient to control the radicals and Parnellites.

DASTARDLY OUTRAGES.

There has recently been a startling increase in outrages on girls of tender years. In a single day six miscreants were convicted at Liverpool and other cases are reported elsewhere. The increase is attributed to the influence of the Pall Mall Gazette's recent exposures. The Gazette contends there has been no increase, but the cases of outrage are simply brought into greater prominence.

LONDON, August 4. The House of Commons last night agreed to a new clause in the criminal bill, granting the right of search to a relation, guardian, or any other person who is in good faith interested in a girl's welfare. A clause making a medical man who examined a girl for any immoral purpose liable to two years' imprisonment, was voted negatively by a vote of 50 to 15. The bill was passed in the committee.

In the Commons to-day, Lord Salisbury, in the course of his speech, said: "Russia does not appear to share our views concerning the Zulficar pass. In the meantime Marchuak remains in the possession of the Afghans and Pendjeh continues in the possession of Russia, and we are pursuing as rapidly and vigorously as possible a policy to strengthen the Indian frontier. No alteration in the diplomatic situation can induce the government in the slightest degree to relax or alter the policy, which will not depend upon transitory relations with this or that other country. The government have no present intention to occupy strategetic positions in the Ameer's domains."

Appointments.

WASHINGTON, August 4. The President to-day commissioned the following postmasters: Gardner A. Wilder, Circleville, Georgia; William N. Van Antwerp, Jackson, Michigan; Henry Cook, Michigan City, Indiana.

The president to-day appointed Wm. C. Jones, of Kansas, marshal of the district of Kansas.

Loud calls were maid for Countee, but he failed to appear. The negro pastor fired his pistol at the mob and managed to escape. Countee had been a member of one of the secret societies but resigned and began denouncing them. The cause of the congregation was that the Great Western, one of the heaviest distilleries in the association, had announced its intention to start up. Father, Mother, and Three Sisters Dead.

Mr. David Claypool, formerly Sergeant-at-Arms of the New Jersey Senate, and now Notary Public at Cedarville, Cumberland Co., N. J., makes the following startling statement: "My father, mother, and three sisters all died with consumption, and my lungs were so weak I raised blood. Nobody thought I could live. My work (ship-smithing) was very straining on me with my weak constitution, and I was rapidly going to the grave. While in this condition I commenced using Mishler's Herb Bitters, and it saved my life. Because it was so difficult to get it in this little place, and I had improved so much, I stopped taking it for a time, and the result is that I have commenced going rapidly down hill again. Somehow, Mishler's Herb Bitters gives appetite and strengthens and builds me up as nothing else does, and I must have a dozen bottles at once. Use this communication as you please, and if any one wants to be convinced of its truth, let them write me and I will make affidavit to it, for I owe my life to Mishler's Herb Bitters."

The secret of the almost invariable relief and cure of consumption, dysentery, diarrhea, dyspepsia, indigestion, kidney and liver complaints, when Mishler's Herb Bitters is used, is that it contains simple, harmless, and yet powerful ingredients, that act on the blood, kidneys, and liver, and through them strengthens and invigorates the whole system. Purely vegetable in its composition; prepared by a regular physician; a standard medicinal preparation; endorsed by physicians and druggists. These are four strong points in favor of Mishler's Herb Bitters. Mishler's Herb Bitters is sold by all druggists. Price $1.00 per large bottle. 6 bottles for $5.00.

Ask your druggist for Mishler's Herb Bitters. If he does not keep it, do not take anything else, but send a postal card to Mishler Herb Bitters Co., 525 Commerce Street, Philadelphia.

WEDNESDAY, AUG. 5, 1885.

GEN. BEN HARRISON, who went west with the senatorial committee to inquire into questions pertaining to Indian reservations, will not return until September. After finishing his work he will visit his son at Helena, Montana.

GENERAL GRANT'S name was not "Ulysses S. Grant." It was Hiram U. Grant. The president's name is not "Grover Cleveland." It is Stephen G. Cleveland. The great speculator's name is not "Jay Gould." It is John J. Gould.

MRS. ROSCOE CONKLING gave a dinner party at her residence, in Utica, last Monday, at which were present her brother, the Hon. Horatio Seymour, and Mr. Fred Conkling, Mrs. Conkling's brother-in-law. Ex-Governor Seymour was in full evening dress and looked well, in spite of his seventy-five years.

OF the hundred suspects who were in Kilmainham Jail, Dublin, with Mr. Parnell, three years ago, three have been hanged, seven are dead, ten have been sent to penal servitude for life, and thirty are car-conductors and drivers in New York, Brooklyn, and Chicago. All of them had good businesses or professions, but had to leave Ireland in consequence of the severity of the crimes act.

WHILE New York is merely talking about a monument to the memory of Grant, Chicago has already raised nearly $10,000 towards the erection of one, and will speedily raise $100,000, if it is decided to expend that amount. When New York proposes to erect a monument to Grant, it appeals to the country. When Chicago proposes to erect such a monument, it appeals to its citizens.—Chicago Times.

MRS. W. W. BAXON, of Watertown, Mass., is over sixty years old, and has been an invalid for twenty years and confined to her bed. Last Saturday week she took a dose of morphine and some whisky, and a few hours later left her bed able to walk. Here is another problem for the Boston people to solve. The old lady did not believe in either the mind cure or the faith cure, and it could not have been the morphine. Was it the whisky?

A WORCESTER (Mass.) doctor was sent for in haste to attend a boy living some distance from town, and found the lad dangerously sick with a diphtheritic throat. He left a prescription upon the table near the patient, and promised to call again. A few days afterward he found the patient much improved, and the mother assured the good doctor that "the prescription did him a world of good." She "left it by him where he could hold it in his hand any time, and he could now read the most of it." The boy is now in his usual health.

MATRIMONY is said to be a less popular thing than it once was, and something should be done for the sake of the country to persuade young men that the wedded state is the only one where there is real comfort. It is with this laudable object in view that we call attention to a recent scene on the railroad which lies between Rome and Watertown, N. Y. On a train between the two places were a mother and her children. The husband and father was not on the train, and the brief account given in the local newspaper does not say that any of the single men envied him, but that they did so may be assumed. There were eight of the children—four pairs of twins. The eight children, four pairs of twins, were in the smoking car. They were put there because they had the measles, every one of them, and it wasn't safe to have them mix with the other passengers. As already remarked, the husband was not along. He may have had the measles, too, or have drowned himself. Yet young men, somehow, will not marry with the chance to each there is always a chance of becoming the father of four pairs of twins, all with the measles. Patriotism is dwindling away dreadfully in this country.

T. C. CRAWFORD tells a queer little story as illustrating Ferdinand Ward's rapacity. Gen. Grant, he says, was accustomed to go up to New York to attend a board meeting from Long Branch, and when he did he received the usual director's fee of a ten-dollar gold piece. This he always gave to Mrs. Grant until she had some seventy or eighty of them. Ward heard of this and got hold of them. He had so coaxed the remote saving of every individual member of the family that when the failure came there was not a single member of the family who had $100 at his command.

This is the season for chills and fevers, and there is no better preventive or cure than Mishler's Herb Bitters. Wm. Cork, of Lancaster, Pa., can bear testimony to this. He was subject to periodical attacks and nothing seemed to do him any good. "At the recommendation of some of my friends," he writes, "I commenced using Mishler's Herb Bitters, and, contrary to my previous experience, I found that it had at least some palpable effect. It thoroughly cleaned my system and I am now completely cured."

To the Honorable Board of Commissioners of Allen County, State of Indiana:

Your petitioners, the mayor and common council of the city of Fort Wayne, do respectfully petition your honorable body to annex to the said city of Fort Wayne the lands and territory set out and fully described by metes and bounds, with names of owners, in the list filed herewith and marked Exhibit "A." All of said lands and territory are contiguous to said city and not laid off in lots, and the owners will not consent to the annexation thereof. The reasons for the annexation thereof are because the growth of said city and her business interests require it. The vicinity adjacent to said lands and territory is thickly populated and greatly in need, as well as said territory itself, of streets, alleys and sidewalks, which ought to be opened and constructed through and upon said lands and territory. That public health and convenience require that said lands and territory should be under the jurisdiction of said city in order that the same may be drained by sewers and ditches and lighted with gas, and it is necessary the city should have jurisdiction over the same for the purpose of enforcing ordinances and police regulations for the protection of property and persons and for the peace and welfare of the citizens of said city. That petitioners have filed herewith and made a part hereof the plat and maps of said lands and territory, duly verified and marked Exhibit "B."

The indications for the lower lake region, as reported by the weather bureau at Washington to THE SENTINEL are as follows: Fair weather, nearly stationary temperature, northerly winds, becoming variable.

The News is shocked because Clara Varnum was fined $10 and her male companion $5, by Justice Ryan yesterday. The man said guilty quietly, while the woman perjured herself in the most brazen and willful manner by declaring she married the man a week ago at Toledo. Her companion says he never met her before the picnic near White's spoke factory.

A Rare Chance.

As D. Nestle intends to accompany his son and daughter, the "Comodore" and "Fairy," to Europe, providing he can get away from business, he therefore offers a big bargain in selling out his stock of dry goods, fancy goods, notions, etc., at No. 130 Broadway, including a bill of fall goods ordered and coming, or will exchange for real estate and give a lease of the store, which is a first class one in every respect, at reasonable terms. In order to accomodate his esteemed customers the stock will be kept up of assortments at greatly reduced prices on all goods until sold or exchanged.

A THING OF BEAUTY.

How a Pretty Photograph will Catch the Eye of the Sweetest Maiden in the Land.

A pretty girl knows her charms and is the first to detect a thing of beauty. She may toss her head at the glance of a handsome man and glare at a rival beauty, but never in the world's history did she pass a pretty photograph, even of "Mother, so dear." There is a study in a fine likeness, because in it the artist shows his master hand. In the position, the shade of the face or a sly glance there is something cute, and of each catchy point the pretty girl makes a "note." Opposite THE SENTINEL office is Hover's celebrated photographic gallery, and hundreds of pedestrians tarry there daily to inspect the slendid work of Murdock, the finest artist in the west. This gentleman has the faculty of producing the most elegant pictures and they are things of beauty, because a pretty girl never passes but to pause and admire the display, notwithstanding the counter attraction across the way. Mr. Murdock's ear must constantly ring so general are his praises sounded, and Hover's gallery is on every lip. Mr. Hover believes in standing in the front rank and people appreciate this sort of enterprise because it gives them work not surpassed in any city in the land. Mr. Hover's parlors are at 112 Calhoun street, opposite THE SENTINEL office.

Very Poor Economy.

Some people make a business of cheating themselves, either by eating very mean and cheap food, or else by eating too small a quantity of good food. Either way is a bad policy as it would be to buy a coffin instead of a suit of good clothes, just because the coffin would cost less. Poor diet means impoverished blood, and that means misery. Brown's Iron Bitters enriches the blood gives it the iron it needs, and tones up the whole system. Cures dyspepsia, indigestion, weakness, malaria, etc.

May making and wheat harvesting are over and we hear some complaints that if the farmers don't soon cut their oats the grasshoppers will cut it for them.

On the last evening in July, at the residence of Joseph Douglas, a birthday party was given in honor of his son, John. Bright lights shone from the house and piazza. The company gathered numbered thirty-five. After a few hours of pleasure on the lawn, they were called for refreshments, an ample supply of which was served. One thing worthy of notice was the elegant birthday cake, with wreath and flowers, presented by Miss May V. Mower. A slice of the cake was given to each one present by the young host. All were glad to share the cake with him, and many fine compliment were passed about the cake, and the host said he must eat a dish of cream with the donor. At a late hour, after wishing their friend many happy birthdays, a parting adieu was said and the company returned to their homes.

CANCER OF TONGUE!

A Case Resembling that of Gen. Grant.

Some ten years ago I had a scrofulous sore on my right hand which gave me great trouble, and under the old time treatment was healed up, and I supposed I was well. I found, however, it had only been driven into the system by the use of potash and mercury, and in March, 1882, it broke out in my throat and concentrated in what some of the doctors denominated cancer. I was placed under treatment for this disease. Some six or seven of the best physicians of the country had me at different times under their charge, among them three specialists in this line, but one after another would exhaust their skill and drop me, for I grew worse continually. The cancer had eaten through my cheek, destroying the roof of my mouth and upper lip, then attacked my tongue, palate and lower lip, destroying the palate and under lip entirely and half my tongue, eating out to the top of my left cheek bone and up to the left eye. From a hearty, robust woman of 150 pounds, I was reduced to a mere frame of skin and bones, almost unable to turn myself in bed. I could not eat any solid food, but subsisted on liquids and my tongue was so far gone I could not talk. The anguish of mind and the horrible sufferings of body which I experienced never can be revealed. Given up by physicians to die, with no hope of recovery upon the part of friends who sat around my bedside expecting every moment to be my last; in fact, my husband would place his hand on me every now and then to see whether I was alive or not, and at one time all decided that life was extinct, and my death was reported all over the country.

Such was my wretched and helpless condition the first of last October (1884), when my friends commenced giving me Swift's Specific. In less than a month, the eating places stopped and healing commenced, and the fearful aperture in my cheek has been closed and firmly knitted together. A process of a new under lip is progressing finely, and the tongue which was almost destroyed is being restored, and it seems that nature is supplying a new tongue. I can talk so that my friends can readily understand me, and can eat solid food again. I am able to walk about wherever I please without the assistance of anyone and have gained fifty pounds of flesh. All this under the blessing of a mercifully Heavenly Father, is due to Swift's Specific. I am a wonder and a marvel to all my friends, hundreds of whom have known my intense sufferings, and have visited me in my afflictions. While I am not entirely well, yet my gratitude is none the less devout, and I am confident that a perfect recovery is now in sight. If any doubt these facts, I would refer them to Hon. John H. Traylor, state senator of this district, who is my neighbor, Dr. T. S. Bradfield, of LaGrange, Ga., or to any other persons living in the southern part of Troupe county, Ga.

Fort Wayne Paint and Color Works.

No. 12 West Columbia Street Fort Wayne, Indiana.

To Painters

And others wanting First-class Paints: Do you know that you have in Fort Wayne a Manufacturer of Mixed Paint and Grinder of Colors, where you can buy your Paints from first hand instead of paying the middle man his profits, which are from 25 to 33⅓ per cent. O. L. STARKEY, the Painter and proprietor of the Fort Wayne Paint and Color Works, came to Fort Wayne in April, 1856, and is identified as one of the old citizens who has helped build up Fort Wayne, and his knowledge of Paints and the composition of pigments to form different shades and tints is well-known to the public, and his long practical experience in painting gives him the knowledge of Paints that a mere dealer cannot have for he does not know anything about Paints, as he buys them sealed up and he cannot tell you what it takes to make this or that shade. All he knows is what the label on the can says. Neither can he tell you shades that will or will not fade. By buying your Paints of O. L. STARKEY you can get all the information you want. I am making Liquid Paints in all shades and colors; also the same shades and colors in paste form, the same thickness as white lead and requires thinning down the same as white lead. In making the different shades my formulas are all registered giving the amount of each color it takes to form certain shades all thoroughly mixed together in the powder mills, then wet down and run through a mixing machine, and from there to the mills where it is all ground together making a pigment that cannot be made by hand. Call or send and get some of my sample cards of colors and tints; also see elevations of gothic houses colored up with four and five shades, which will give you a good idea how to paint and ornament the outside of your houses.

I say again, do not buy of the middle man if you want to save money. I will guarantee my prices and quality of goods with any manufacturer in the United States.

AGAINST DRINK.

The Allen County Temperance Unions Declare Against Wine at the Altar and Liquor in General.

A convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Unions of Allen county was held at Maysville, July 24, 1885. The unions, which are four in number, were all represented.

MORNING SESSION.

The exercises were opened by devotional exercises, after which an address of welcome was given by Mrs. Stopher, president of the Maysville union. This was followed by a response. The audience was entertained by an interesting essay by Mrs. Dr. S. H. Omo, after which the business of the day was taken up. The first business was organizing. Mrs. Dr. Omo having been previously chosen president of the county, Mrs. Myers, of Leo, was chosen secretary and Miss Schrader, of Fort Wayne, treasurer. Committees were then appointed on press work, resolutions and for other purposes. The convention was then adjourned to meet at 2 p. m.

AFTERNOON.

At 2 p. m. the convention was opened by devotional exercises, after which reports were made by committees, followed by reports from secretaries of the different unions. The remainder of the time was occupied by short speeches from Revs. Slack and Singer, Dr. J. H. Omo and others. The meeting then adjourned until 7:30 p. m.

EVENING.

The evening exercises consisted of songs, essays, recitations, singing by members of the Band of Hope and a talk by Mrs. Philley, of Fort Wayne.

The entire exercises were full of interest and an earnest of purpose on the part of the participants, which are very favorable to success. The next meeting will be held at Leo, time yet to be decided. The following resolutions were passed:

Resolved, That believing the use of fermented wine at the sacrament of the Lord's Supper has been the means of leading many reformed men back to their old habits of using intoxicants, and that the example before the world is not a consistent one, we earnestly protest and will invite our pastors to lend their influence against its use.

Resolved, That knowing intemperance to be a sin, we as christian mothers, wives and sisters cannot look upon the licensing of this evil with the least degree of approval.

Resolved, That as our hope for the future lies in the children of to-day, we will engage in and encourage the juvenile temperance work, and that we will heartily cooperate in securing scientific instruction in our schools.

Resolved, That realizing that more effective work can be done if the workers are well informed, and that the life of our union depend upon it, and our national and state organs need our support we will as far as possible take the Union Signal and Organizer in our homes, read selections from them in our meetings and circulate them among the people.

Resolved, That in the future as in the past, we will look to God for help and guidance, and that we will more and more look to him for weapons with which to fight the liquor traffic, which is one of the greatest enemies of our homes.
